JOHN G. TOWER, Room 4E830, PENTAGON, Washington, D. C., was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and of the fact that the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI) had additional questions for him in connection with the background investigation currently being conducted of him.

At the outset of the interview and in response to a prior request, TOWER furnished a copy of the visa stamps on his United States passport. In particular, TOWER noted that the one triangular shaped stamp on page 8 of his passport is the stamp which was received when he entered Islamabad, Pakistan. TOWER advised that, although the stamp does not copy well, the date on this stamp is readable, "24-8-87," the date when TOWER arrived in Islamabad on his direct flight from London, British Air flight 223. He had departed London on August 23, 1987. He further advised that the rectangular shaped stamp which overlaps the triangular shaped stamp was the one he received upon exiting Pakistan at Karachi, dated "29-8-87." A copy of these pertinent pages from the passport of JOHN G. TOWER are included and are made a part of this document.

TOWER was asked whether or not he knew [redacted] b6
TOWER advised that he did not know [redacted] until recently when b7C
he heard that [redacted] has made specific allegations concerning TOWER's inappropriate behavior on three specific dates. Selected portions of the form FD-302 reporting the interview of [redacted] by the FBI were read to TOWER, in order to secure his comments concerning these allegations and details. [redacted] description of TOWER's actions on August 25, 1987, through August 26, 1987; on December 12, 1987; and on May 16, 1988, were read to TOWER. Concerning the August 25, 1987, through August 26, 1987 period, TOWER advised that a review of his schedule, which has previously been furnished to the FBI, reveals that he was in Islamabad, Pakistan, during that period of time.

The visa stamp, a copy of which was furnished earlier in this interview, should also verify this fact. Concerning the December 12, 1987, allegations, TOWER advised that his travel schedule, previously furnished to the FBI, reveals that he departed Washington, D. C., enroute to Dallas, Texas, by American Airlines at 12:50 p.m. Concerning the May 13, 1988, allegations by [] TOWER advised that he traveled to Seattle, Washington, that day and was speaking at the HENRY S. JACKSON MEMORIAL FOUNDATION Dinner. TOWER was the principle speaker for that occasion.

TOWER was asked whether any of the specific allegations or details of these allegations might lead him to believe that [] had the wrong date, but the correct information. TOWER advised that none of these people, dinners, or actions which were described by [] sounded at all familiar to TOWER. He explained that he very rarely goes into the bar at the JEFFERSON HOTEL and has dinner in the restaurant area, not in the bar. The only time he might go to the bar is to sit and wait for a particular individual before joining that individual for dinner in the restaurant. He does not recall ever having socialized with an Australian or a group of Australians at the JEFFERSON HOTEL. Speaking of [] and the allegations made by [] TOWER advised that "this guy is a first class liar." Upon hearing the description which [] gave of TOWER's alleged behavior on May 16, 1988, under the influence of alcohol, TOWER advised that "in my heaviest drinking days, I never conducted myself in this manner." In summary, TOWER denied all allegations made by [] and stated he does not recall any actions on his own part which could possibly have been the source of these allegations.

TOWER was advised that investigation by the FBI revealed that there were several dates during which TOWER and [] were both staying at the JEFFERSON HOTEL. These dates were July 15, 1987; July 16, 1987; and July 17, 1987. TOWER advised that a search of his records reveals that, on July 15, 1987, he gave an interview at 4:00 p.m. with BRUCE MORTON of CBS NETWORK; a 6:30 p.m. interview with TOM BROCAW of NBC NETWORK; and a 10:10 p.m. interview with NANCY DICKINSON of CHANNEL 5. TOWER advised that on July 16, 1987, he had a dinner with two individuals at the JEFFERSON HOTEL. These individuals are [] and a British friend of TOWER's. The dinner broke up approximately 11:00 p.m. and TOWER retired for the evening. At 3:29 p.m. on July 17, 1987, TOWER left Washington, D. C., to travel to Dallas, Texas. As a result, he did not stay in Washington, D. C., on the evening of July 17, 1987. TOWER advised that on none of these three evenings did he abuse alcohol or conduct himself in any way which might have been the source of any of the allegations made by [redacted]

TOWER advised that he is aware of the fact that the FBI interviewed [redacted] who is now employed at [redacted] Washington, D. C. He is also aware that the FBI had received allegations concerning inappropriate behavior by TOWER with a female dressed in a strapless gown. This behavior was alleged to have taken place at a restaurant in Dallas, Texas. TOWER advised that, following a conversation with [redacted] he recalled the evening in question. That evening, TOWER had dinner alone at the MANSION RESTAURANT in Dallas, Texas. Following that dinner, TOWER joined the group which he described as the HISPANIC ASSEMBLY OF DALLAS at the SAN SIMEON RESTAURANT. At the gathering that evening were [redacted] and [redacted]. TOWER stated that he had known [redacted] for many years and has known [redacted] many years, as well. He joined this group for about one or one and one-half hours and left alone. He estimated that he left that group about 11:00 p.m., but this is only an estimation on his part. Concerning his use of alcohol that evening, TOWER commented that when he came in, the group was finishing their dinner. He sat down among them and believes he had a glass of their dinner wine. He cannot state exactly how much wine he had that evening, but he is certain he was not under the influence of alcohol at any time during that entire evening. At all times, his conduct and deportment were proper. He did note, however, that this was a very cordial and sociable group of friends, many of whom had known each other for many years. Although the entire group was active and sociable, there was no improper behavior on TOWER's part or the part of anyone else to the best of his recollection. TOWER was advised that the allegation received by the FBI involved TOWER's inappropriate behavior with a female, who is said to have fallen down while wearing a strapless dress. TOWER advised that he does not have any recollection whatsoever of anyone falling down. He stated that he is aware of the fact that [redacted] advised the FBI that the female in the allegation received by the FBI was [redacted]. TOWER stated that he cannot verify this fact from his own knowledge, although he does recall that [redacted] was wearing a strapless and low-cut dress that evening.

TOWER was asked whether he recalled anything which occurred on the evening in question which might have been misinterpreted by others who did not know the individuals in that party. He advised the he could not think of any behavior on his part or the part of anyone else which might have been misunderstood by anyone. He advised that the restaurant was quite noisy and it was necessary to be quite near any individual with whom one intended to carry on a conversation. He speculated that this physical proximity during conversation might have led to a misunderstanding, but he repeated that this is strictly speculation on his part.

The information in this summary memorandum supplements the information contained in summary memoranda dated December 13 and 23, 1988, January 6, 13 and 25, 1989, and February 8, 20, 27 and 28, 1989. Additional investigation is being conducted.

Additional allegation of criminality on the part of Senator Tower.

On February 28, 1989, a confidential source told the FBI that he/she had recently received information from an official in the Executive Branch, that Senator John Tower had been paid off by the president of a Defense contractor for his influence as a Senator in assisting the contractor in its negotiations with the Department of Defense.

The confidential source has no personal knowledge of any payoffs or bribes to Senator Tower, only what he/she recently heard. He/she did identify a former employee of the Defense contractor who may be knowledgeable of the relationship between the Defense contractor's president and Senator Tower.

The confidential source also indicated that he/she had heard that this Defense contractor at one time was under investigation and had used Senator Tower's assistance to resolve the problem.

The FBI has verified that the particular Defense contractor has been and continues to be under investigation, and that the Executive Branch employee in question was in a position to have regular contact with Senator Tower when the Senator was Chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

The FBI has initiated an expedite criminal investigation to resolve these allegations.

He stated that during the time the appointee was in BAYLOR HOSPITAL following colon surgery in January, 1989, [redacted]
[redacted]

[redacted] He stated sometime that during that period of time, the exact date, the exact circumstances, and exact wording unrecalled by him, the subject was brought up regarding whether or not it would be alright for the appointee to have a glass or two of wine with dinner.

[redacted] noted that this question is raised on many occasions by patients of his following surgery.

He generally advises these patients to the effect that medically, as far as ones surgery is concerned, it will probably not hurt to have one or two glasses of wine, or a cocktail, or several beers, with dinner.

He stated that he does not advise persons to begin drinking as part of their post operative care, and only discusses it if the matter is brought up. He stated that with regard to the appointee, as he had previously noted, he can not recall whether the appointee asked the question or not. He stated however that he seems to recall that the appointee did so ask this question. He stated that he also recalls giving a reply similar to that noted above in response to same. He stated that he can not recall any other discussion of alcohol with the appointee. He further advised that he can not recall any concern on his part as a physician with regards to the appointee's consumption of alcohol.

He noted that according the appointees personal history taken from him at the time he entered the hospital on January 4, 1986, the notation is listed "patient it a smoker; he drinks alcohol occasionally". He noted this was apparently what the appointee reported when he entered the hospital.

He also noted that with regard to the blood test he gave the appointee on December 26, 1989, it is known as a SMAC 28. He stated that this is a blood test which measures various areas of the blood. It is based on a reference range of values set up by the pathologist who designed the test. In this particular laboratory, and in this particular test range, all testees are measured against the same reference range, no matter what their age, previous medical history, alcohol consumption, sex, or any other difference that he can think off.

He also noted that a portion of this Smac 28 test is known as the GGT, and it is a very sensitive test as regard to the liver with regard to over use of alcohol. He noted that the appointees GGT test, as were all of his tests, were within the normal ranges.

He also noted that during his viewing of the appointee's liver and pancreas, etc., during the surgery, all appeared perfectly normal to the naked eye, irrespective of any other factor, including age, sex, race, drinking habits, etc.

He noted that these organs are either considered normal or abnormal. The only time these organs would be considered abnormal is when they are seen to be diseased or cancerous, or some other type abnormality.

As he had previously stated, the appointee's organs as noted above were normal to his viewing.

He also noted that as previously stated the only discussion regarding a resumption of alcohol with the appointee was as note above, and there was no indepth discussion about levels of consumption or threats to the appointee's life and health.

He noted that he, as well as the appointee's family, were much more concerned with the fact that the appointee is a smoker of cigarettes than with the appointee's drinking habits.

He noted that the cigarette smoking would appear to him to pose a much greater health risk to anyone.

He noted that with the production of such a court order or subpoena, the corporation would certainly be most happy to cooperate in making employees available, as well as records which might be desired.

He noted that the release of such information with the use of such a court order or subpoena would be a reassurance to current and future guest and customers that the corporate policy with regards to the personal privacy of such individuals has not changed.

He stated that he, again, does not feel that the appointee would ever reveal any confidential information. He noted that these would be the appointee's daughters, who generally greeted him there.

SKILES Sr. was impressed with TOWER and at the commencement reception where alcohol was not served, TOWER acted like a perfect gentleman.

SKILES Sr. said he was aware of the current inquiry regarding TOWER'S alleged drinking problems and womanizing. He thought TOWER would have problems being confirmed due to a perceived lack of respect relating to the above allegations. SKILES Sr. said his relationship with TOWER was too limited to comment regarding his suitability for the Secretary of Defense appointment or to make a recommendation. On 2/13/89, an anonymous caller describing himself as a "citizen-tax payer" in the independent oil business advised that he personally saw JOHN TOWER on approximately six occasions in 1972 in the upstairs bar at the TRADEWINDS MOTEL in Wichita Falls, Texas. He saw him on the weekends and on approximately three occasions saw him in a drunken condition. He pointed out that TOWER impressed him as a heavy drinker, and on one of the occasions "drank a hell of a lot of whiskey and like to fell on his ass when he got up". On that occasion he had two unknown women with him, and on one of the other occasions had a woman with him.

The caller learned from general discussions during 1972 and 1973 that TOWER was allegedly making "thousands of dollars" out of the oil shortage. He was allegedly receiving money from independent oil producers and from an Association known as the INDEPENDENT OIL PRODUCERS AND DRILLERS ASSOCIATION. He believed that TOWER was acting as a lobbyist for them when in actuality he was a Senator at the time. The caller mentioned Wichita Falls, Texas, Abilene, Texas, and Midland-Odessa, Texas as areas in which the oil producers Association operated. He said that the Association furnished TOWER money which TOWER used for an airplane and pilot. On one occasion the caller talked with TOWER's pilot, with nothing of substance discussed, and he described this pilot as a white male, age [] years, 5'9", 170 pounds with [] hair. b6 b7C

During this same period of time he had a specific conversation with an independent oil producer who was a member of the Association, and who told him that the producers were getting help through TOWER but that they had to pay money to TOWER to get him to help them. Dear Senator Tower:

[] and I sincerely appreciate the opportunity we have had in recent weeks to discuss with you some of our plans and opportunities regarding our new Triad PlusTM product for personal computer workstation management and data security. Thank you for making some time available to discuss the various events, primarily relating to trade shows and other special occasions for which you have agreed to assist us as a public spokesman.

I truly believe in view of the tremendous proliferation of IBM PC workstations throughout the U.S. and the world, that this issue of computer security and data integrity is most critical and in need of high level attention in order for solutions to be implemented. We are firmly convinced that your many years of public service in the U.S. Senate on armed forces and intelligence committees, your present involvement on the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board, and your work on the Tower Commission places you in a most unique position to be the best national leader on this hot issue.

The schedule of various events we have for you this fall will help to keep your name in the spotlight by means of the publicity related to these special targeted events. From midyear '87 to midyear '88 we foresee this as an important window in time for national emphasis on this computer/data security problem and its solution. From '88 to '89 we see the need for a global emphasis on this same issue.

The schedule for the four panel events discussed recently with you is attached. At this juncture the detailed logistics and other aspects of briefings for you have not been worked out. Please advise us when it would be most convenient for us to brief you, sometime around early to mid-September for the October 1 breakfast meeting/panel in Washington, D.C. This private, invitation-only breakfast with you, followed by a panel discussion, will be for about one hundred key government, military and industry leaders whom we believe are the principal decision and policy makers in the Washington and East Coast areas.

I also take this opportunity to confirm with you the telephone conversations you had with our [] on August 11 and 12 regarding the schedule for the four panels and the agreement made with you with respect to compensation. For working with us during the remainder of this calendar year (four panels and introductions to certain of your key contacts in the U.S. and Europe) we will give you an option for 5,000 shares of Micronyx common stock at the current price of $3.00 per share, exercisable anytime within four (4) years. In addition, you will be paid a fee (or honorarium) of $1,000 in cash for each appearance on a panel plus all reasonable travel and out-of-pocket expenses.

[redacted]
[redacted] Telephone number [redacted] was re-interviewed concerning flights from DALLAS/FORT WORTH INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (DFWIA) to Europe during the period May through September, 1987. She furnished the following information:

She stated that she has flown from DFWIA to London, and return, during the past two years, and that she has been in the company of Senator JOHN TOWER on some occasions. She stated that she maintains a personal diary for her own records, but she could not locate her diary for the year 1987.

She said that she recalled travelling to London from DFWIA on or about May 29, 1986, alone and later meeting Senator TOWER during September, 1986, in London. She recalled that she and Senator TOWER returned together on the same flight on this occasion.

She also recalled that she may have travelled from DFWIA to London with Senator TOWER during September, 1987, but she was not certain and could have confused this travel with travel during the same time in 1988.

She said she could not recall well any of the flight attendants on any of these flights to London, but she noted that Senator TOWER, because of his frequent travel, knew many of the flight attendants on these flights. She stated that on one occasion, while she and Senator TOWER were returning from London to DFWIA, a female flight attendant offered a bottle of champagne to her and the Senator and that she accepted the unopened bottle of champagne and later gave it as a gift to a friend.

She stated she could not recall any specific male flight attendant on any flight from DFWIA to London in which she accompanied Senator TOWER.

[redacted] stated that neither she nor Senator TOWER eats the entree served on the flights from DFWIA to London and that both eat only the shrimp or caviar served on these flights.

She recalls specifically that on each occasion that she flew with Senator TOWER, he consumed either one or two glasses of champagne or wine, along with the shrimp or caviar, and then "slept like a baby" for the remainder of the flight. She said that she generally consumed one half a jigger of vodka, along with the above dish, and then read a book for the remainder of the flight. She pointed out that Senator TOWER was always very alert at the end of the flight because he had slept, and that she was tired and ready to go to sleep, resulting in her and Senator TOWER kidding one another about their different habits.

[REDACTED] referred the interviewing agent to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Amelia Martin Travel Agency, 3811 Turtle Creek Boulevard, Suite 250, Dallas, Telephone Number [REDACTED] indicating that all her travel arrangements to Europe had been made through this agency. She also referred the interviewing agent to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] employees at her office, Telephone Number [REDACTED] indicating that these individuals maintained her records concerning expenses for her travel and other business records.

[redacted] AMELIA MARTIN TRAVEL AGENCY, 3811 Turtle Creek Boulevard, Suite 250, Telephone [redacted] caused a review of agency records for travel of Senator JOHN G. TOWER and [redacted] to be made for the period of calendar year 1987, for travel from DALLAS/FORT WORTH AIRPORT (D/FW AIRPORT) to London. She located records for the following travel:

Senator TOWER and [redacted] were ticketed for travel from D/FW AIRPORT on AMERICAN AIRLINES Flight 50, departing on May 31, 1987 at 5:30 PM to London, Gatwick Airport (LGA). Senator TOWER was ticketed to return from LGA to D/FW AIRPORT via AMERICAN AIRLINES Flight 79 on June 8, 1987, departing London at 1:25 PM. [redacted] was ticketed to return from LGA to D/FW AIRPORT on AMERICAN AIRLINE's Flight 79 on July 6, 1987, departing at 1:25 PM.

Senator TOWER was also ticketed to travel via AMERICAN AIRLINES Flight 50 on June 26, 1987, departing D/FW AIRPORT at 5:30 PM to LGA. Senator TOWER was ticketed to return via AMERICAN AIRLINES Flight 79, departing LGA on July 2, 1987, at 1:25 PM.

Senator TOWER was also ticketed to travel from Washington, D.C., Dulles Airport via BRITISH AIRWAYS (BA) Flight 188 on June 12, 1987, departing at 1:00 PM, returning on BA Flight 217 on June 22, 1987, at 4:15 PM to Dulles Airport.

She could locate no other records of flights to Europe by either [redacted] or Senator TOWER during 1987.

She noted that during 1987, airline regulations allowed travel agents to issue tickets to passengers traveling on the "frequent flyer programs" and that any travel under such a program by either [redacted] or Senator TOWER, made through her office, would have been located in this record review.

She concluded that, to her knowledge, all travel booked by Senator TOWER is made by her agency through arrangements made by Senator TOWER's offices in Washington, D.C. and Dallas.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 12-22-88

On 12-16-88 at approximately ¹11 a.m., the writer received an anonymous telephone call from [redacted] (last name unknown). This individual described himself as a [redacted] who was still active in matters regarding [redacted]. This individual advised that he wanted to inform the FBI of derogatory matters, regarding the nomination of Senator TOWER, which had not yet come out in the press. b6 b7C

This source stated that he thought that Senator TOWER's nomination would present a conflict of interest as Senator TOWER [redacted] which, according to the source, is the world's largest [redacted].

This source then advised that Senator TOWER "always boozes it up." When asked for a specific example of this behavior, the source responded that Senator TOWER was "on the juice as soon as the plane got in the air."

He noted that on one occasion Senator TOWER chased [redacted] so the she had to lock herself in her room in order to avoid his advances. [redacted] was described as a [redacted] who now worked as a [redacted] which is located in Washington, D. C. According to the source, the incident involving [redacted] occurred during Senator TOWER's marriage. The source added that Senator TOWER's wife was upset because some of her husband's military escorts were women.

The source also noted that Senator TOWER had secured a job for his wife in a government archival position.

The source advised that both [redacted] and [redacted] could verify the source's allegations. He described [redacted] as a [redacted] in the United States Air Force (USAF) who is now the head of the [redacted] and who is a [redacted] was described formerly being employed in [redacted] and, prior to that, once [redacted] section of the USAF.

Investigation on 12-16-88 at Washington, D. C. File # 161A-20403

by SSA [redacted] Date dictated 12-22-88

[redacted] is, according to the source, now employed by [redacted] Washington, D. C., in the area of "computer data." The source opined that [redacted] could testify to Senator TOWER's drinking as being a pattern of behavior. b6 b7C

The source advised that he thought that the greatest potential of information regarding Senator TOWER's drinking would be to interview non-commissioned officers (NCO) in the military who accompanied Congressman on trips. The source suggested that the FBI interview [redacted] [redacted] Washington, D. C. [redacted] who was [redacted] and who is about to [redacted] is currently with the [redacted]

The source refused to reveal both his identity and any means of recontacting him. However the source agreed to telephonically contact the write on 12-22-88 to further elaborate on the above-mentioned allegation or to provide addition information which would enable the FBI to locate and interview the individuals specifically mentioned by the source.

This individual immediately claimed that nothing that he could bring forward to the FBI would make a difference and that, due to his current job, he was in a "peculiar" position. He advised that [redacted] whom he described as a [redacted] in the United States Air Force, had received a [redacted] [redacted] but he had no way of knowing how she secured this position. He claimed that she had a "bad reputation" as she had slept with persons other than Senator JOHN TOWER.

He also advised that the FBI should interview senior non-commissioned officers (NCO) who traveled with Senator TOWER. In particular, he mentioned a senior NCO who served in front office of "L and L", which he later described as "legislative liaison" approximately two years ago. He advised that this person, whom he initially called [redacted] and then, upon checking a reference book, advised that the NCO's name was [redacted] [redacted] should be interviewed since he was involved with Senator TOWER's travel itinerary.
